

Over the past year, Ohio State’s Center for Automotive Research (CAR) engaged with more than 7100 individuals and conducted 150 events including tours, camps, internships and other outreach activities.

CAMP CAR

- 95 applicants from 23 states + Puerto Rico, Peru and Canada
- 25 attendees from 5 ethnically diverse backgrounds, 11 states and 2 countries

Employed 10 high school and college interns who worked with faculty and staff on various research projects

• Community Outreach and Engagement Opportunities •

Elementary and H.S. Students

- 8 tours
- 150 events

Higher Ed.

- 30 tours
- 1200 students

Industry Visits

- 30 visits
- 3000 visitors

Elected Officials and Industry Executives

- 21 visits
- 470 people

Hosted the 10th Annual IFAC Advances in Automotive Control Symposium, contributing to future research and development through active exchange between industry and academia

Led continuing education programs for 400 engineers at General Motors, Caterpillar, Honda, Stellantis and Schaeffler

Helped introduce The Ohio State University to 10 Camp CAR alumni who are now Ohio State students

Toured U.S. Sen. Sherrod Brown and Ohio State President Kristina M. Johnson prior to the announcement of a zero-emission and low-emission public transportation bus testing center at CAR

Served as a pit stop for ZEM Goes USA, a student project out of the Netherlands showcasing ZEM, a first-of-its-kind electric vehicle

Provided a behind-the-scenes look at CAR, its partners and the people who are playing a role in the future of Ohio’s transportation during a Technology Takes the Wheel event

• CAR hosted the following companies for student recruitment events •

CAR welcomed visitors from the following countries

Canada, Peru, Taiwan, Japan, China, South Korea, India, Germany, France, Sweden, Netherlands, Italy, Belgium, Poland, Slovenia, Portugal, Spain, Luxembourg, Greece, Czech Republic, Austria, Hungary, United Kingdom