Over the past year, Ohio State’s Center for Automotive Research (CAR) engaged with more than 5000 individuals and conducted 220 events including tours, camps, internships and other outreach activities.

CAMP CAR
- 7 female
- 13 male
- 129 applicants
- 6 ethnically diverse backgrounds

Employed 11 high school and college interns who worked with faculty and staff on current research projects
- 5 continued on to work at CAR
- 1 completed her 2nd CAR summer internship
- 1 joined a student motorsports team

- CAR hosted 175 tours to over 1800 external guests -

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Elementary and h.s. students</th>
<th>College tours</th>
<th>Industry visits</th>
<th>Elected Officials and Industry Executives</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>19 tours</td>
<td>14 tours</td>
<td>20 visits</td>
<td>34 visits</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>275 students</td>
<td>200 students</td>
<td>245 visitors</td>
<td>467 people</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Hosted two visits by U.S. Representative Troy Balderson and his staff

Participated in inauguration event for Governor Michael DeWine at Wright Patterson Air Force Base Museum in Fairborn, OH

Hosted students from the Cummins College of Engineering in India for two days and hosted two of the students for summer internships

Participated in the Ohio State Fair with three separate outreach events involving CAR, EcoCAR and Underwater Robotics

Toured 25 venture capitalists with Bloomberg Capital including Franklin County Commissioner John O’Grady and Ohio Congressman Tim Ryan

Offered facility and Team Works tours as part of WestFest, a free public event showcasing sustainability and outreach at The Ohio State University and beyond

Led on-site engineering short courses and workshops with Honda, FCA, GM, ASAM and National Instruments

Visited by Marco Bucci, Mayor of Genoa, Italy and a delegation from Columbus Sister City

Informed guests about various vehicle sensors and provided the unique opportunity to see themselves on a 3D camera at the COSI Science Festival’s Big Science Celebration

Educated 20 engineers on the field of personal mobility at the inaugural Summer School in Advanced Mobility

CAR assisted the following companies with student recruitment

CAR welcomed visitors from the following countries
Canada, China, Japan, India, Israel, Australia, UK, France, Germany, Italy